

Diane Buck

Diane Buck, enrolled member of the Assiniboine, from the Fort Belknap Reservation in Montana has been involved with the Denver March Powwow for many years. She has been the Secretary-Treasurer for the past 20 years and has chaired the Contest Committee for the past 22 years. Diane has previously served on various boards of directors within the Indian Community.

She attended high school in Harlem, Montana and graduated from Haskell in Lawrence, Kansas. She also attended Junior College at Haskell. Diane retired September 2000 after 32 years of Government Service. She has resided in Denver for 41 years.

Diane is the daughter of the late Florence Longknife-Capture and the late Joseph Buck. She has three sisters: FayeDean, Jolene, and Bebiana; adopted sisters Martina Menard-LaDeaux and Sandra Black Bear-White; four brothers: Medric, Duane, Frank and Conrad. Diane is the proud grandmother of many, many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

1/7/14