

Ken LaDeaux

Ken LaDeaux is Oglala and Sicangu. He was born on the Rosebud Reservation in South Dakota and grew up on the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota.

Mr. LaDeaux is a respected businessman. He was the former owner and President of the Denver Business Development Group. As a business owner, he has received numerous awards e.g., Minority Business Entrepreneur; Governor's Small Businessman of the Year.

He received his education at Marquette University and California State University at Northridge.

Mr. LaDeaux has been actively involved with the Denver March Powwow for 30 years and has been Co-Chair/President for the past 26 years. Mr. LaDeaux chairs the Arts & Crafts Committee. He has served on the Rosebud Tribal Business Council, was Manager at the Rosebud Tribal Casino, and is currently the Director of Sicangu Resource Development Program.

1/8/14