

Miss Thomasina Rose Good Eagle

2017 Denver March Powwow Princess

Thomasina Rose Goodeagle is the daughter of Thomas and the late Yvette Goodeagle. She has two sisters; Lindsey Goodeagle, Amanda Ironstar, and one brother; Benjamin Goodeagle. She is also a proud auntie!

On her paternal side, Goodeagle belongs to the Mary Osage Green family. The late Mary Osage Green was a full blood Osage from the Grayhorse District. Her grandparents are Dolores Goodeagle of Pawhuska, Okla. and Donald Goodeagle of Walters, Okla. Rose is also a descendant of the Pawnee Nation, Quapaw Tribe, and Sac and Fox Nation of Missouri.

On her maternal side, Rose is from the Oceanman First Nations of Saskatchewan, Canada - Assiniboine, Nakota and Dakota. She is the great granddaughter of the late Joe and Rose Ewack and the granddaughter of Della Ewack.

Thomasina's Osage name is "Favorite Hawk Girl Who Needs Attention All the Time".

Goodeagle resides in Anadarko, Okla. with her father in "Square Top America", as her late mother would call it. She attends Riverside Indian School and is in the 9th grade. Goodeagle is active in basketball, softball, and cross-country.

Thomasina enjoys dancing fancy shawl and continues to make lifetime memories on the powwow trail. All her life, she traveled around with her parents and made everlasting friendships.

Rosie, as her family calls her, continues to live life to the fullest. Her late mother constantly reminded her about her spirituality and always reminded her to be healthy and to always stay physically active.

Goodeagle is also honored to serve as one of the four young women to carry the sacred pipe at the family's Sun Dance in Oceanman.

Throughout the year, Thomasina has traveled to many events and represented the Denver March Pow Wow to the best of her ability. She expresses her gratitude and has loved carrying this title all over Indian Country.

"It has been an honor to be the 2017 Denver March Pow Wow Princess. I wish my late mother could have been here to see me. But, I am thankful that my family has supported me every step of the way. I want to thank the Denver March Pow Wow Committee for asking me to be the ambassador and I hope that the next princess enjoys this title as much as I did. I would like to wish all the dancers 'Good luck and dance hard'. I hope that you all have safe travels home and I ask that the creator bless you and your homes. Ah-ho! Wopila Tanka!. Wa.We.Nah!" - Thomasina Rose Goodeagle, 2017 Denver March Pow Wow Princess
